Scholastic just set up a FREE online resource for kids to use at home. It's to help keep kids engaged and learning (and away from YouTube at least for a couple hours) while their schools are closed. Currently, there are 5 days of resources, but we're working on building up to 20 days. There are books, video books, articles, and activities for PreK-K, 1st-2nd, 3rd-5th, and 6th+. Here's the link:
