

The Weehawken Free Public Library

BLACK HISTORY month

The Weehawken Free Public Library will be teaming up with the High School's Black Student Union for Black History Month. The student artists will present portraits of notable Black Americans in the form of "scratch art".

Visit the Library on Thursday, February 22nd at 7:00 PM to meet the artists.

The presentation will be on display at the Library during the month of February.

